Social Program Is Being Planned by Local Women For Annual Convention

With the sixteenth annual convention of the Seventh District, T. F.W.C, meeting in Canyon April 8 and 9, clubs and committees thruout the district are busy with work on federation projects and convention reports and details.

The program for the convention, according to Mrs. J. K. Crews, Plainview, district program chairman, and Mrs. J. A. Hill, Canyon, local program chairman, is complete. Several innovations to usual district schedule have been planned, and the two day meeting will be featured with an unusually imposing number of inspirational speakers.

Every detail of the program has been planned to afford the maximum of interest, information and inspiration, while conserving the time and energy of delegates. Reports from the one hundred eighty or more clubs in this, the largest district of the state federation, will be presented during the afternoon of the first day, in concurrent sessions, thus allowing more time on the general program for speakers and entertainment features.

Lecturer From T. C. U.

Dr. Rebecca Smith, of the English department of Texas Christian University, Fort Worth, will be the principal speaker of Friday afternoon session, being presented by the fine arts department. Of delightful personality, and one of the recognized educators of the state, her address will bring in-

Equipment For New Postoffice Is Being Shipped to the City

Postmaster Guy Harp has received an invoice on the equipment for the new postoffice. Shipment will be made in a short time. Receipt of the invoice indicates that there will be no delay in equipping the building when it is finished.

According to the schedule of the contractor, June 8th has been set as the time for finishing the new structure.

Bill Cone Is Named Editor of Prairie, W. T. Newspaper

Bill Cone of Canyon was selected Monday to be editor of The Prairie next year. Recommendations for editor were made by Mrs. T. V. Reeves, sponsor of the publication, and the selection was made by the Student Council.

The new editor is a graduate of the Canyon high school, and was editor of The Eagle's Tale. He has worked on the Canyon News at various times and has represented the Amarillo News in Canyon. He is completing his sophomore work in W. T.

MATERIAL BOUGHT TO WIDEN TWO BRIDGES

Bids were opened in Austin yesterday by the State Highway Department for material to widen the two bridges north of Canyon. WPA labor will be used in this work, States E. H. Gohmert, highway engineer in charge of the work.

Snow Fall Monday Brings .25 Inch of Moisture Here

Plains Covered With Best Rain of Winter: Temperature Drops To Very Low Degree

Citizens of the Plains were agreeably surprised Monday morning when they awoke to find the ground covered with snow. Snow continued to fall throughout the day, measuring from 3 to 5 inches over the Plains, and resulting in a quarter inch of moisture.

The snow climaxed a series of very cold days over the week end. The temperature dropped last Wednesday night to 25 degrees above zero. Saturday morning the mercury sagged to 16 degrees above. Sunday morning the reading was 18 degrees. The temperature hovered around 25 degrees throughout Monday while the snow was falling.

Citizens of this section were greatly elated at the unexpected snow. The entire dust bowl was covered, according to reports received. It was the heaviest snow of the year, and covered more territory than any snow or rain during the past year.

The drop in temperature, with the accompanying snow will prove most beneficial to the wheat. While considerable damage was done last week by the high winds, it is believed that the moisture now in the ground will stop most of the blowing in this section which usually accompanies the April winds.

Dairymen Hold Anual Banquet Friday Public School Gym

More than 250 men and women attended the eighth annual banquet of the Randall County Dairymen's Association which was held at the public school gym Friday night.

The Rusk orchestra furnished music during the first part of the program, while entertainers from KGNC gave a program during the latter part.

W. H. Upchurch was toastmaster, introducing a number of visitors who are closely affiliated with the dairy industry in the county.

W. T. Strange of Big Spring had accepted the invitation to speak, but was confined to his bed with an attack of flu. Clyde Warwick accepted the invitation to speak in place of Mr. Strange. Mr. Warwick discussed the part of the citizen in good government. The growth of interest in government was traced as the citizenship had become government-minded during recent months. Problems of the New Deal were outlined because of the prevailing lack of information as to the function of government, the goal of government and the limitation of government.

The part of a good citizen is to stand by his officers, at the court house, at the state capital and at the national capital was the conclusion of the speaker.

Cemetery Ass'n Will Meet; Beautification Work Is Done

The Dreamland Cemetery Association will meet at the court house Saturday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock to hear reports from the various committees. All members are requested to be present.

Mrs. John Fry and members of her committee are completing their work of beautification on the grounds. Evergreens and shrubbery have been planted at the entrance. Pines at the exits have replaced the trees which are dead. A tamarix hedge has been planted along the north side of both old and new parts of the cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Burrow returned Sunday from a two weeks trip through the southern states to Florida.

School Trustees To Be Named Saturday In All Districts

The annual election of school trustees will be held throughout the districts of the county on Saturday of this week. Very few contests will be staged over the county, according to reports received here.

In the Canyon Independent School District, three trustees are to be named, and only three names appear on the official ballot. G. W. Cox agreed to accept another term on the board. Dr. Harris M. Cook and Dr. E. J. Cundiff agreed to submit their names to the voters. The two retiring members are Dan Sanders and S. H. Condron, who wished to be relieved of their duties.

Fourth Anniversary of CCC Will Be Recognized April 4th

On April 4, the CCC Company stationed at the Palo Duro Canyon State Park, will hold an anniversary celebration closing the fourth year of the establishment of the Citizens Conservation Corps in America, according to C. E. Heaton, educational director at the camp.

Visitors to the Park will be admitted free all day Sunday, and everyone is urged to drive out to the Park and become acquainted with the work that is being done there by the CCC boys.

Members of the Company will be stationed at the entrance to act as guides for those desiring to see what is being done; also men will be stationed in the tourist cabins to explain the work there.

At 2:30 o'clock a program will be staged by Cal Farley and his men, followed by a talk by a speaker to be selected. A soft ball game will furnish the diversion during the remainder of the afternoon.

The entire camp will be open for inspection on this date, and the directors of the camp are anxious that visitors take advantage of the open day event commemorating the fourth anniversary of the establishment of the CCC Camps throughout the nation. Go out and spend the day!

Final Day Buying 1937 Auto Plates Brings Big Rush

Car Registration So Far Runs Under Record of Last Year: Midnight Is Zero Hour

Automobile owners have until midnight tonight to buy their 1937 plates.

Cars which are not equipped with the new plates will face difficulty tomorrow if they attempt to operate on the highways. In the first place, the car owners will be subject to arrist and a fine for operating a vehicle without the new plates, and in the second place the plate will cost 20 percent more.

Only about half of the cars in Randall county had been equipped with the new plates yesterday morning. There was a rush at the office of Tax Collector R. N. Barnett throughout yesterday, and the line of car owners is expected to be long throughout today. The office will be opened tonight in order to accompany late comers.

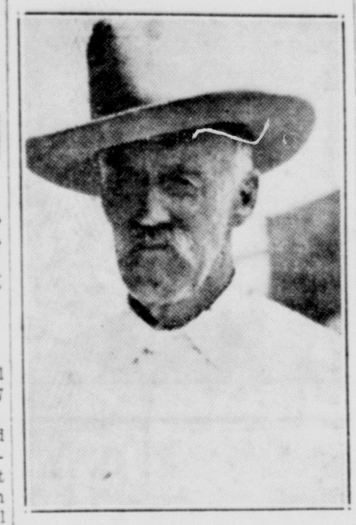
Dr. C. E. Donnell Moves Back to Canyon From Lamesa

Dr. C. E. Donnell and family returned yesterday from Lamesa where they recently moved. Dr. Donnell will resume his practice here. He states that he had a pleasant situation in Lamesa, but owing to his interests here and his long residence in Canyon, he deemed it to his advantage to return.

Miss Lillian Donnell, daughter of the Doctor, is here to make her home. She has been at Sanatorium for the past six months taking treatments.

Mrs. J. W. Prichard has improved sufficiently so that she was moved to the home of her son, Hud Prichard.

Pioneer Dies



JUDGE J. W. TURNER

John W. Turner Died Monday at Umbarger Funeral Yesterday

John W. Turner, 75, died Monday afternoon at 5:45 o'clock at his home near Umbarger. In his death, another of the real pioneers of Randall county was taken from the field of activity. Coming to the county in 1888 as a cook on the T-Anchor Ranch, Mr. Turner has been closely identified with the developments of the county.

The funeral services were held at the Griggs-Thompson Funeral Home Wednesday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock, conducted by Rev. Earl Craig, pastor of the Church of Christ. Interment followed in Dreamland Cemetery by the side of the wife and two children of the deceased.

Surviving is one brother, W. H. Turner, who has lived near Umbarger for several years; and one niece, Mrs. Viola Cook of Amarillo.

Mr. Turner was born at Muscatine, Iowa, Sept. 26, 1861. He lived in Kansas and Indian Territory before coming into the Panhandle and securing a job with the T-Anchor Ranch. Several men in Randall county were with the outfit when Mr. Turner arrived. R. E. Baird had joined the ranch

Merchants Form Credit Organization Tuesday

Roy Moreland To Compile Full Record of All Citizens In Randall County For Group

The Canyon Credit Association was organized Tuesday night by a group of business and professional men who met at the court house to discuss the proposition.

Roy Moreland was engaged as manager of the association. The committee to oversee the work is composed of Ray Campbell, C. O. Cooper, Dr. H. A. Brown, T. A. Black, and C. L. Thompson.

Mr. Moreland has leased the first floor of the Palace Hotel and will establish an office. His family will live in the building, and Mrs. Moreland will look after the office when he is out on calls.

A complete set of records will be kept of all people in the county. Reports will be made of bad accounts, slow accounts, dead checks, and other information which is needed by such an organization. Collections will be handled through the office.

Mr. Moreland has thoroughly investigated the plan used in the Amarillo Credit Association, and will follow this plan which has proven very successful in Amarillo.

Farmers Elected Committeemen at Group Meetings

The election of Committeemen for the administration of the 1937 Agricultural Conservation Program was completed in two meetings held in the court house in Canyon last Wednesday and Thursday, March 24-25.

At the first meeting, the following committeemen were elected to represent the east one-half of the county: R. B. Gist, chairman; W. O. Turpin, vice-chairman; Jeff Wallace, Ross Craig and C. B. Irwin.

At the meeting Thursday afternoon, committeemen were elected to represent the west one-half of the county as follows: J. P. Hix, chairman; L. B. Hammond, vice-chairman; Carl Fuqua, C. P. Robertson, and John Bedenk.

The chairman and vice-chairman from each of these committees met Saturday morning at the County Agent's office to complete the organization of the County Committee. R. B. Gist was elected as president of the County Agricultural Conservation Association, and chairman of the County Committee. J. P. Hix was elected vice-president of the County Association, and vice-chairman of the County Committee. W. O. Turpin was selected as the third member of the County Committee with L. B. Hammond, alternate. Clyde McElroy, having been previously elected as a committeeman to represent the range interests, was selected as range inspector and supervisor.

A letter has just been received by the County Agent from the State Office, giving notice that Randall county's base acreage quota was being raised from 90.4% to 95% of total crop land in the county. This will give Randall county a better base acreage figure for 1937 than the one used in 1936.

Fine of $100 Paid Tuesday by Hereford Man In Booze Case

Herman Luken of Hereford paid paid a fine of $100 and costs Tuesday on the charge of transporting liquor through dry territory without a permit. 18 cases of beer were taken from Luken, and will be sold by Sheriff Bob Barnett under the direction of the State Liquor Board.

Deputy Bill Money made the arrest on the highway and brought the man to the court house.

DR. NEBLETT WILL ERECT A NEW HOSPITAL

W. T. Will Use Facilities and County Will Place County Cases in New Institution

PLANS BEING DRAWN

Will Be Located on 6th Avenue at 16th Street —Petition is Circulated For Paving Sixth

Announcement of the erection of a hospital in Canyon was authorized yesterday by Dr. R. A. Neblett. Dr. Neblett has been considering the building for several months, and final plans for the institution are rapidly being completed. An architect is now drawing the design.

The building will be one story, and fire proof construction. While the cost has not been fully determined, it will approximate $25,000 for the building and furnishings.

The new institution will be located at 16th Street and Sixth Avenue, from which site the Foxworth-Galbraith lumber yard was recently removed. This site was chosen in order that the hospital be near the business district, yet far enough away from the railroad and heavy traffic to provide a quiet zone. It will join the city park on the east.

Dr. Neblett was assured last month by the Commissioners Court that the county would use the facilities of the institution for all its cases.

Dr. J. A. Hill has entered into a contract, which has been approved by the Board of Regents, for the use of the hospital in connection with the student body of W. T. Dr. Hill has urged the erection of a hospital for several years, and has attempted several times to secure such a building for the campus. The arrangements as worked out with Dr. Neblett will meet the needs of W. T. in caring for the health of the students for many years.

Tax Renditions To Be Signed Before Homestead Exempt

M. E. Cantrell, deputy tax assessor, states that the time is growing short for tax payers to take advantage of the homestead exemption. But the tax rendition blanks must be signed by the property owners before the homestead is exempted. $3,000 value exemption of homesteads relieves a large number of property owners in Randall county from all state taxes, and thereby greatly reduces the tax bill for owners of homesteads.

Mr. Cantrell urges those who have not rendered their taxes to do so at once before the tax rendition blanks are turned over to the equalization board.

Adult School Is Opened Monday After 2 Weeks Recess

The adult school was opened again Monday night by Silas Hart after having been shut down for two weeks.

Mr. Hart states that 30 adults are enrolled in the school, with an average attendance of about 20. He urges those interested in the work to start in the classes at once.

Mrs. Dan K. Usery returned Tuesday afternoon from Los Angeles, Calif., where she spent the past two weeks with her daughter, Miss Frances, who is a student in the University of Southern California.

Dr. Harris M. Cook left yesterday for Austin where he will attend the National Association of Dean of Men. The association is being entertained by the University of Texas.

In these changing times, with new inventions coming out daily and others being proposed, every person wonders how his vocation or his job will be affected. Inventions and improvements reduce manual labor, and often affect trades and industries. But on the whole, improvements have never seriously injured any one who has the least spark of initiative. The old-fashioned blacksmith shop has been surplanted by the modern machine shop, repairing tractors and other modern machinery; the garage and filling station has takthe place of the livery stable; the milking machine and modern dairy equipment has taken the drudgery out of this industry from the days when cows were milked in the open with either mud ankle deep, or flies swarming by the hundreds. And so on through the improvements that have been made. Each invention means more leisure, and that is the real difficulty; so very few people know how to use their leisure time without getting into some kind of cussedness.

Prediction is that the President's court reform bill will be passed by July 1st. However, during the coming three months the press, air and mails will be full of propaganda both for and against the bill. Very few opinions in congress will be changed by all this discussion, but the public will be given an opportunity to air preconceived notions. After carefully examining all of the evidence that is being presented day by day, one finds nothing new being advanced either for or against the bill. The same charges and counter charges as first made are simply being reworded. Some of the bold senators who spoke out bravely against the bill, like our good friend Tom Connally, are now attempting to advocate compromises in order to stay in the good graces of the President. However, it is likely that no compromise will be accepted, and the bill will be passed just like the President wishes it.

Governor Allred is having the usual luck of a second term governor. He presented a program to the legislature, but most of his suggestions hit the waste basket with a mighty thud. Most every governor gets along pretty well with the legislature during his first term. During his second term he usually runs into ready difficulties, as the lawmakers become more independent of the will of the chief executives. One of the pet measures of the Governor was the pardon and parole board, approved by the people through a constitutional amendment. But when the legislature passed the bill making the measure effective, it was criticised by the Governor as being full of errors, and was vetoed. When a bill is hotly contested and often amended from the floor of the house, funny things are apt to creep into the measure. This seems to be the history of the pardon and parole measure.

The gun fodder race between Italy, Germany and Russia goes to the latter. The birth rate in both Italy and Germany has dropped in recent years in spite of the demands of Mussolini and Hitler that larger families be raised. The birth rate in Russia is on the increase. More children means only one thing to the dictator—more soldiers. More soldiers are needed in order to carry on the bluff which is the stock in trade of the average dictator. In the meanwhile poor old France has suffered a great loss in population as the result of the decline in birth rate. Getting ready for the next war is the great national pastime in Europe.

Another tragic air crash in the east. The big air liners have suffered so many losses the past four months that air travel has diminished fifty percent, according to recent reports. Perhaps the manufacturers are attempting to float too bulky and heavy ships with the meagre knowledge that has been gained about flying during the past few years. A mere layman who knows nothing about aviation has little grounds for criticism, but something must be fundamentally wrong with these big liners or so many accidents would not have resulted in so short a time.

Fiorello H. LaGuardia, bombastic mayor of New York, is carrying on a one man battle against Hitler similar to the one staged by the former Mayor Bill Thompson against King George. LaGuardia proposes a chamber of horrors at the coming world's fair to be held in New York dedicated to Nazi methods. Dictatorship in Germany does not appeal as strongly to the big boss of New York as it does in his native Italy. However, Mussolini has been more diplomatic in not getting mixed up in a church row, or persecution of racial enemies.

Whenever the people of the state want to do something in a big way, hundreds of people will rush to Austin asking the legislature to pass an appropriation bill. But the legislature must take the money called for in this appropriation from the pockets of Texas citizens before the appropriation may be passed. It is easy to pass appropriation bills, but it is exceedingly hard to pass tax raising measures. The legislators have a hard problem on their hands—a problem that few people in the state really appreciate.

Labor difficulties are spreading over the nation. The sit-down strike is being used effectively. While the eyes of the nation have been directed to the big automobile strikes, scores of sit-down strikes have been staged in small plants of which the people have not been informed. Labor difficulties always increase when prosperity seems evident. Perhaps some of the strikes are called by walking deligates who wish to impress their importance upon the members of their unions.

When beer was legalized many towns which had been dry for many years decided that beer was the very way to pay off their debts. Beer was legalized in many, many instances, and booze joints opened. After three years' experience a large percent of these towns have found out how badly fooled they were and in practically every election held, beer has been voted out by large majorities. Booze and business do not mix. When the two get tangled up, business takes it on the chin.

Today is your last chance to buy 1937 automobile license plates. If you do not buy today, a penalty of 20% will be added tomorrow morning, or else you must be deprived of the use of your car for three months. Buy your plates before night and be on the safe side.

The gullible public is again swarming into the stock market. Buying good stocks, making safe investments is a fine thing, in spite of the low rate of returns that such investments may make. But there are hundreds of stocks which are still worthless, and will remain worthless, which are eagerly being bought by the unsuspecting because the price is low. Profitable stocks are bringing high prices, but they are safe in the long run. The wise will invest in safety.

The shelter belt was severely criticized when the government started planting trees down through the drouth territory. In spite of the criticism, the trees which were planted two years ago are said now to be 16 feet tall. The loss of the trees planted has been very light. The government has taken good care of the plantings, and the result has been as satisfactory as was contemplated. Check up another score for the brain trusters.

President Roosevelt is paid $75,000 per year for his services to the nation. Many business executives and several motion picture stars make several times this amount. Mr. Roosevelt is surpassed even by Mrs. Roosevelt in making money. Her income is said to run above the $100,000 mark, all of which is turned over to charity.

When a man meets another man wearing the same kind of hat or suit that he has on, the thinks, "That fellow certainly shows good taste." But when a woman sees another woman wearing the same kind of hat or outfit she has on: "The old huzzy, where on earth did she get that outfit."

Help Keep Canyon Clean!

THE GREAT AMERICAN HOME

WHY?

Canyon News: Why should a federal judge receive a salary of $20,000 per year while he serves on the court, and then receive the same salary for life if and when he should retire? A man who has brains enough to aspire to such a high office certinly has been one with a most lucrative law practice. If he has common sense enough to pass upon the economic questions involving 125 millions of people, certainly he has been foresighted enough to lay away a good per cent of fat fees he has received as a lawyer. A federal judge is supposed to live modestly and far more economically than the man who is in politics or other kind of public life. When the public sees men of this class retire at such unreasonable salaries for life, is it any wonder that the people fall for the Townsend plan, or demand $30 per month assistance for all over 65 years of age? But the lawyers prevail in legislative halls and most certainly will protect the interest of the group which receives the political plums.

Tahoka News: Since we have come to think of it, we believe you are right. There is no sense nor justice in paying a retired justice of the Supreme Court $20,000 for doing nothing. That is what our Congressman, George Mahon, said in explanation of his vote against the Summers bill—and George is a lawyer too. He was district attorney before he went to Congress.

The Summers bill providing that members of the Supreme Court who had reached the age of 70 and who had served as much as ten years on the court might retire on full pay was introduced before President Roosevelt submitted to Congress his startling plan to revamp the court.

But after the President had submitted his plan, Congress rushed the Summers bill through with the hope that it might help to solve the difficulty that Congress faced. George Mahon, we believe, was the only Texas Congressman who voted against it. Only a few Democrats in either House of Congress voted against it. It passed in a jiffy.

Under the authority and the delicate suggestion contained in the Summers bill, two or three members of the Court doubtless would have retired soon had not the President appeared before Congress with his startling proposal and his bitter attack upon the Court. He then could have appointed their successors and thus have accomplished in large measure, in an orderly and proper fashion, without bluster and ballyhoo, what he is now attempting to accomplish by the use of another Roosevelt's weapon, the Big Stick.

It occurs to us that President Roosevelt has made an egregious blunder, even if he wins.

It is hard to understand what happens.

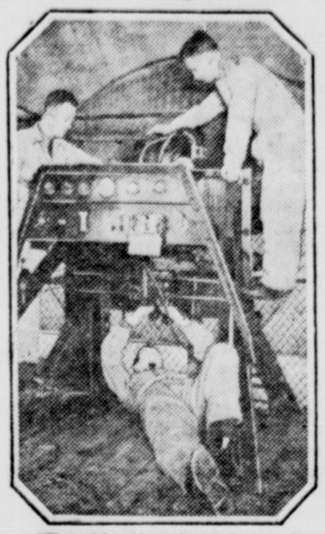
Comes Spring and the Army's 1937 'Dodo' Class Gets Aerially Under Way

The flying cadet at Randolph Field learns more than how to fly an airplane; he learns "why" an airplane flies, as shown here. An instructor is with the cadets.

An aerial view of part of Randolph Field as a flight of cadet training planes zoom over the beautiful administration building in the foreground.



"Trouble shooting" is an important item in the training of the army's embryonic birdmen. Cadets are shown above trying to determine what is wrong with a practice motor.

FORT SAM HOUSTON, Texas. —The army's 1937 spring "dodo" crop is on the way.

The "dodos" are the beginners, the flying cadets of the army's "West Point of the Air," Randolph Field. One hundred and fifteen of them have just enrolled for training as military pilots.

From all parts of the United States these young men—between 20 and 27 years of age—have come to Randolph Field. Assigned to the same bunk are the Iowa farm boy and the Vermont undergraduate. The flying school is a democratic institution.

Cadet training is conducted under three separate co-ordinated departments: the academic, the flying, and the military. The first two departments give the cadet instruction in those subjects essential to the development of the airplane pilot and military aviator, while the military department is maintained to prepare the student for the duties of the regular army air corps officer or an officer of the organized reserves.

ALL cadets, arbitrarily, are qualified men. All have completed two years of college work or have passed an examination providing equivalent tests. All have passed rigid physical tests.

With this background they begin the business of flying. The new spring class at Randolph is taught not only to fly an airplane, but also "why" an airplane flies.

Beginning with a course in proper ground instruction, lectures, laboratory work, and recitations, the cadet moves on next to aerodynamics, or the theory of flight. The working parts of a plane are mastered. At the same time the student is given practical work in rigging and structure. Later he is taught "trouble shooting" and the application of aviation principles to actual flying.

Thence the student proceeds to the real business of flying a plane. He must know how to make his way about the country in a ship. The course in air navigation meets this need. Use of maps, the magnetic compass, radio, wind, and other instruments are taught.

And after this comes the meteorology of aviation—the knowledge of "when" to fly. Temperature, pressure, winds, clouds, precipitation, and humidity, their causes and effects on flying, become the subjects of the cadet's study. This is the last primary step.

THE course at Randolph Field takes eight months. If the course is completed satisfactorily, the cadet then may move on to the army's advanced flying school at Kelly Field, near San Antonio, Tex., for four months' additional training. At the end of this period, the cadet is commissioned a second lieutenant in the air corps reserve and placed on three years' active duty. Afterward, he is promoted to first lieutenant and is continued on active duty for an additional two years.

As a cadet, each man receives about 324 flying hours. During his three years' active duty, he is enabled to secure 1200 hours' flying time, which will entitle him to meet Department of Commerce qualifications for transport pilot. He draws a salary from the day he becomes a "dodo."

P.-P. H. S. Banquet Expected to Bring Capacity Crowd

Attendance at the annual Panhandle-Plains Historical Society banquet, which will be held in the Cousins Hall dining room on April 16, is expected to overtax the capacity of the large banquet hall, L. F. Sheffy, secretary of the society, said Thursday. Sheffy stressed the fact that the annual meeting and banquet is open to the general public and is not limited to members of the historical society.

Walter Prescott Webb, noted Texas author, who wrote "The Great Plains" and "The Texas Rangers," both sagas of this great West Texas section from which outstanding movies have been filmed recently, has accepted an invitation to speak at the banquet here on April 16.

W. H. Patrick of Clarendon, president of the Historical Society, has announced plans to be present, and in addition to presiding at the meeting, will deliver a brief address. Mr. Patrick is a well-known pioneer in this section.

The meeting here next month will be the sixteenth annual session since the organization of the Historical Society in 1921. The first meeting was held at Cousins Hall in the spring of that year.

The P.-P. H. S. Museum, located on the W. T. campus, is a focal point of interest for all residents and students of the Great Plains region. During the last eleven months, more than 50,000 visitors from thirty-seven states and eight foreign countries have registered at the museum, records reveal.

The museum has recently been enlarged by the addition of a $25,000 basement, and a number of new cases have been ordered to display many new exhibits, Mr. Sheffy said.

Places for the annual banquet may be reserved for one dollar. Reservations should be mailed to W. L. Vaughn, treasurer of the Society, at Canyon.

Nationally Famous A Cappella Choir To Visit Campus

Midland College's nationally famous a cappella choir from Fremont, Neb., will present two concerts of sacred music in Canyon, Thursday, April 22, according to announcement made last week. The first concert will be held in the morning at the main auditorium of W. T. The evening concert, sponsored by the Baptist Student Union, will be held at the Baptist Church.

Midland's choir, an eight-part chorus of 70 voices, is taking a 3,000-mile tour between April 11 and May 2, the itinerary calling for concerts in Nebraska, Colorado, Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas, and Missouri. It will also travel thru New Mexico.

Work of the well-known choir, which has sung before approximately 130,000 persons in 175 concerts during travels of 21,700 miles through 24 states, the District of Columbia and Canada during the last eight years, has gained the group national recognition and equal rating with the Paulist choirs of Chicago and New York, the St. Olaf Lutheran choir, the Westminster choir of Dayton, O., and the Northwestern University choir.

Prof. Oscar Lyders, who was formerly director of the Waldorf college choir of Forest City, Ia., for 12 years and a soloist with the internationally famous St. Olaf choir for four years, is director of the Midland choir.

Highland News

If these snows and rains, though light, continue, we still have hopes of making a wheat crop in this party of the county, unless Deaf Smith county blows on us and covers us up. That dreaded blow strip has moved farther east again this year and is almost to the county line.

Sayings heard this past week during our heavy sand storms: "This year is the first year my land ever blew, and if I hadn't listed and contoured I bet it wouldn't have blown." "You know I was listing around my field and by the time I got around I could not tell where I had listed." "Say, have you a lister or chissler I could borrow a few days." "If 'so-and-so's' land had not blown on my wheat I could have saved my best wheat." "This is the last year I am going to stay here," and so on and on. We will probably all put in wheat again next year and be here and tough it out. Maybe it will rain more next year.

Where the community spent Easter: Mr. and Mrs. Tom Boling and children visited Mrs. Boling's parents at Sudan; the Bedenks were at home with Mrs. Bedenk's two brothers and families spending the day with them; Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Mason had Easter dinner with Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Fulton at Zita. The Fuquas and Mr. Brown and his new family attended church in Amarillo and had dinner in town.

Mrs. Fuqua and Harry went to Canyon Saturday and called at the Robinson home.

APRON-OVERALL PARTY ENJOYED BY CLUB

The home of Dr. and Mrs. R. A. Neblett was the scene last evening of a gay apron and overall party for the Friday Afternoon Club members and husbands.

The affair was held in the game room where a delicious supper of baked beans, wieners, buns, combination salad, pickles, onions, pop sickles and coffee was served.

Games of bingo, jack straws, and fortune telling were enjoyed until a late hour by the comely dressed group.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Lee Foster, special guests, and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Kleinschmidt, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Bishir, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Harp, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Black, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Knighton, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Warwick, Mr. and Mrs. Irby Carruth, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Sanders, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Smith, and the Nebletts.

REBEKAHS HEAR REPORT OF REPRESENTATIVE

Members of the Rebekah Lodge met in regular session Tuesday and heard the very interesting report of Mrs. Minnie Laughery, representative of the local lodge to the Rebekah Assembly which met at Corsicana in March. Of particular interest was the visit to the orphan's home there to see the wonderful work that is being carried on by the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs. All meetings were attended as well as the degree work put on by some of the best teams inthe state.

Those present for the evening who enjoyed the delicious supper which was served following the meeting were: Mrs. Nora Hart, Mrs. Winnie Gibbs, Mrs. Margaret Cole, Mrs. Teresa Patterson, Mrs. Myrtle Wester, Mrs. Myrtle Stratton, Mrs. Nannie Myers, Mrs. Ola Ridgeway, Mrs. Isabel Dickenson, Miss Columbia Redfearn, Mr. and Mrs. A. K. McBride and Mrs. Dick Smith.

J. J. WALKERS ENTERTAIN NIGHT CLUB THURSDAY

Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Walker entertained members of the Lucky Thirteen Night Club at their home 2105 Fifth Avenue with three tables of bridge.

Sprays from flowering shrubs were used for house decorations, and the Easter motif was featured in the dainty refreshment plate that was served by the hostess at the conclusion of the games.

Enjoying the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Black, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Farlow, Mr. and Mrs. Owen Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hicks, Mrs. J. L. Duflot, Mrs. Claude Moore, the host and hostess.

CHARLES STRATTON GIVEN BIRTHDAY DINNER SUNDAY

Sunday, March 28, marked the 21st birthday of Charles Stratton of Bethel, who spent the day here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Stratton. A delicious dinner was prepared for the occasion by Mrs. Stratton, with the beautiful candle lit birthday cake serving as centerpiece for the occasion.

Birthday wishes and congratulations were received by the honoree during the day.

Seated were Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Terry and son Landon, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Sparks, Mr. and Mrs. O. V. Mayben, James Davis of Fritch, a former class mate, Charles, and Mr. and Mrs. Stratton.

COUNCIL REPORTS SATURDAY MEETING

The Randall County Home Demonstration Club Council met in the court house Saturday afternoon.

Members of the various clubs over the county are busy preparing exhibits for the Plainview Dairy Show.

There were eleven clubs represented, one visitor and Miss Allie Dozier, home agent, present.

Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Dodgen and baby of Shamrock, and Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Laas and children of Plainview were guests Easter in the parental Harvey Cash home.

HOME DEMONSTRATORS GIVE LIST OF KITCHEN HELPS

In the study of Kitchens this month, the following hints and time savers have been turned in by the Home Demonstration Club women.

A few rubber bands are useful about the house says Mrs. J. M. Brietling of the Edgetown Club. One rubber kept around the front of a book that is being read assures instant opening at the correct page. An additional band around the portion unread will hold the book open when the hands are busy; this plan is particularly good when cooking. If the recipe book is too limber to stay flat when the bands are used put it inside a heavier book and put the bands around both. Neither wind nor stubborn pages can annoy the cook.

Dark wood work in the kitchen is hard to keep clean and polished but Mrs. B. E. McCormick of the Zita Club has found that by using equal parts of vinegar and paraffin oil she has little trouble in keeping her wood work. This mixture should be made as it is used. It also is a good furniture polish.

One quart of hot wate, 3 tablespoons of boiled linseed oil and 1 tablespoon of turpentine used warmed, is a good mixture to clean soiled woodwork, says Mrs. Pearl Nesselroad of the Hyland Home Demonstration Club.

Feed sacks make attractive kitchen curtains at very little cost, says Mrs. J. W. Spencer of the Edgetown Club. The natural brown of the sacks blends in with almost every color. Mrs. Spencer faced the sacks with a yellow facing two inches in width. The facing may be made any color to harmonize with other colors in the kitchen.

Mrs. J. B. Knox co-operator of the Sunny Hill Club says to have a different flavor to doughnuts, add one-half stick of bark of cinnamon and four whole cloves to the fat in frying them.

To clean grease spots from the wall paper Mrs. Clay Fuqua of the Highland Club uses a paste made of starch and gasoline.

ALL DAY MEETING WITH MRS. H. G. PERSONS

"Making lunches attractive and well balanced is the key note to a school lunch a small child will enjoy," said Mrs. W. L. Browning in a demonstration given at the regular meeting of the Ralph H. D. Club, Wednesday, March 24, at the home of Mrs. H. G. Persons.

After the business meeting a social was planned for Saturday night.

At the noon hour a delicious Turkey dinner was served to the following members: Mrs. H. L. Heizer, Mrs. Clarence Bauer, Mrs. Lonnie Byars, Mrs. M. O. Slack, Mrs. Ruth Hill, Mrs. A. A. McMillan, Mrs. Carl Schroeder, Mrs. S. S. Howell, Mrs. Browning, Mrs. J. V. Williams, and Mrs. Persons.

LABOR SAVING GADGETS DISCUSSED AT MEETING

Gadgets and labor saving devices were topics of discussion when members of the Edgetown Home Demonstration Club met in the home of Mrs. Curtis Weathersbee, Friday, March 26.

A number of devices were discussed by members, but it was decided a vegetable slicer and grater would save the house keeper more time.

At the social hour refreshments of chocolate cake and coffee were served to Mrs. W. B. Smith, Mrs. J. W. Spencer, Mrs. O. M. Solomon, Mrs. L. G. Campbell, Mrs. Carl Wesley, Mrs. J. M. Breitling, Mrs. G. H. Hardman, and Mrs. Weathersbee.

Mrs. Solomon will be hostess to the club on April 9.

SYBIL ANN GILLIS HAS EASTER PARTY

Honoring Sybil Ann, her mother Mrs. John A. Gillis entertained with an Easter party Thursday afternoon of last week at their home 1900 Sixth Avenue.

Baskets of candy eggs tied with orchid ribbons and suspended from the stays of a large silk parasol of pastel shades were given the little tots as favors. A variety of games were played during the afternoon, and pictures were made of the group.

At the refreshment hour the tots were taken into the dining room where the table was centered with a large Easter basket holding fluffy yellow chicks on a bed of green grass, surrounded by eggs and chicks of candy. Pink and white brick cream, cookies in shapes of chickens and bunnies, and orange juice was served.

MISS ORPA DENNIS HAS GROUP SATURDAY EVE

Beautiful in detail was the bridge social given by Miss Orpa Dennis Saturday evening in the spacious home of Miss Mary E. Hudspeth. Yellow tulips and pink rosebuds were used for house decorations.

A beautiful Easter lily was given to Mrs. Don Trolinger, high score winner, at the conclusion of the games. Low score prize went to Miss Fannie Sue Brasuel.

Refreshments of grape ice with sponge cake, coffee and salted nuts were served by the hostess. Small Easter baskets were given as favors.

Present were Mrs. C. M. Presley, Mrs. Earl Robbins, Mrs. Berl Mayfield, Mrs. Trolinger, Mrs. M. S. Bishir, Mrs. James Cole, Mrs. N. E. McIntire, Mrs. J. J. Walker, Mrs. K. E. Frieze, and Misses Virginia Jarrett, Fannie Sue Brasuel, Allie Dozier, Gwendolyn Black, Olive Schramm, Ruth Greenfield, and Gladys McClanahan.

PLACEMENT OF SINK IN KITCHEN VERY IMPORTANT

The placing of the kitchen sink for proper light and pleasant outlook is of much importance in planning the kitchen, said Miss Allie Dozier at the meeting of the Palo Duro Home Demonstration Club. The meeting was held last Thursday, March 25, at the home of Mrs. Arthur Albers.

Score cards for modern kitchens were checked, and only two members were found to be without water in the kitchen. Much interest was also shown in the demonstration of Process Cheese making, which was given by Miss Dozier.

Refreshments were served to Mrs. E. A. Albers, Mrs. Bailie McCormick, Mrs. E. A. Michael, Miss Phyllis Albers, all visitors; and members Mrs. Henry Miller, Mrs. Clem Dugan, Mrs. R. D. Finley, Mrs. E. P. Harding, Mrs. W. G. Rose, Miss Dozier, and hostess, Mrs. Albers.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Finley Wednesday, April 7, instead of April 8, the regular meeting day.

GARRISON CLUB HAS MEETING THURSDAY

Members of the Garrison Home Demonstration Club enjoyed a meeting Thursday with Mrs. S. T. Whitman.

A very interesting study on labor saving devices for the kitchen was held with one of the members demonstrating a number of handy gadgets.

During the social, refreshments were served to the members and four visitors present, including: Mrs. Glenford Fowler, Mrs. Elmer Bauer, Mrs. W. C. Lindsey, Mrs. L. E. Tolbert, Mrs. C. W. Barnard, and Mrs. S. T. Whitman; Mrs. Tom Bandy, Mrs. Glen Whitman, Mrs. Seth Whitman and Mrs. Jess Kykundall, visitors.

CIRCLE MEMBERS HAVE ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION

Members of the Moore Circle of the Baptist W. M. U. celebrated their first birthday with a party at the home of Mrs. I. A. Hicks Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Mable Scott, mother of the circle, was honored with a handkerchief shower.

Mrs. J. R. Hicks was guest of the club, and members present included Mesdames G. B. Bourland, H. N. Wilson, W. R. Durham, B. F. Fronabarger, G. M. Stuart, and M. W. Gordy.

A. A. U. W. TO MEET WITH MISS RITCHIE MONDAY

Members of the A. A. U. W. will meet at the home of Miss Jennie C. Ritchie Monday evening, April 5th, at 7:30 o'clock. Miss Helen White Moore is chairman of the hostess group for the evening.

LEGION AUXILIARY TO HAVE MEETING MONDAY

Monday afternoon, April 5th, at 3:30 o'clock, members of the American Legion Auxiliary will meet at the Legion Hall for a special meeting. Members are urged to be present.

Three Wrestling Bouts Left On Preliminary Card

"Fite Nite" Scheduled to Be Held Thursday Night

Only three more wrestling bouts are booked for the preliminaries before the finals of the 1937 intramural boxing and wrestling finals are held Thursday in Burton Gymnasium.

Jack Edmondson, 175 pound grappler, spilled Conway Butler Thursday by a fall in 3:17 minutes. The victory pits Edmondson against the victor of the Mays-Kendrick bout today. The heavyweight division finds the consistent Blake Lyde against the winner of the Dow-Williams clash. Joe Hayes won his way to meet Monroe Horton in the 165 pound division by trampling Lucius Penick by a time advantage. Harold Butler spilled Ernest Schur by a fall in 1 minute, 55 seconds, which pits against him the favored Jack Jennings in the 155 pound class. Lee Gordon is a favorite to take the upper hand in his bout with Kenneth Clark for the 145 pound division. The varsity representative, Durward Knowles, is expected to withstand the invasion of the winner of the Schmitz-French bout. No candidates entered the 115 or 125 classes.

The 165 pound mix-up between Tom Slack and Milton Neilson is expected to furnish the highlight in the night's boxing card. Neilson won his way into the final round by virtue of a decision over Henry Hamblen. Craig Walling will be given an equal chance to sustain the long, looping bombardment of the towering Raymond Shackelford in the heavyweight class. Shackelford labored for four rounds in an attempt to deal out the soporific punch against Randal Osborne, but he failed to connect. Arnold Brown will face the tricky Wilbur Wofford in the 125 pound class. Brown reached the last lap by upsetting Lawrence McBee by decision.

Two exponents of the free-for-all style of attack are destined to paint an interesting spectacle when Foster Watkins collides with the sensational E. C. Payne, Jr. Watkins was forced by Coker to fight five rounds before obtaining the right for further competition. Two hard-punching fighters of the stocky variety go into the ring when Oscar Hinger and Ed Williams face in the 175 pound weight. W. B. Stapp will be a favorite to smother Ira Hutchins for the 145 medal. The fighter, Joe Bailey, will have more than an equal chance of disposing of rookie Carl Goettsche in the 135 pound weight. Bailey reached the finals by lambasting Cato Merchant for a decision. Goettsche found little difficulty in ousting Tom King.

Coach Al Baggett has indicated that all of the medals for this year and last have been received, and will be awarded following the last match.

McCLURE TRADES HOME; MOVES TO HALE CENTER

S. B. McClure has traded his home in Canyon to H. M. Wheeler of Hale Center for land near Hale Center. The Wheeler family has moved to Canyon to make their home.

Mr. McClure ended his 25th year as a citizen of Canyon the past week. He has been engaged in the real estate and loan business throughout a major part of the time he has lived here. He will farm at his new home.

20th Anniversary of Land Bank To Be Observed Here

The Canyon National Farm Loan Association plans to take an active part in the state-wide observance of the twentieth anniversary of the founding of the Federal Land Bank of Houston, according to G. G. Foster, secretary-treasurer of the association.

The observance is scheduled to begin at 10:30 o'clock on the morning of Saturday, April 3, which will be twenty years to a day since the charter of the Federal Land Bank of Houston was signed.

A program of unusual interest is being prepared for the occasion, Mr. Foster declared. One of the highlights, he said, will be a radio broadcast featuring dramatic incidents in the history of the bank and the National Farm Loan Associations in Texas. This broadcast, which will be heard from station WFAA at Dallas as well as the other stations of the Texas Quality Network, will go on the air from 10:30 to 11 a. m. on that date. The Canyon National Farm Loan Association will provide a fine radio receiving set at the place of meeting, County Court Room in Canyon. Other entertainment will include talks by representatives of the Federal Land Bank.

According to Mr. Foster, this occasion will be one of the biggest celebrations in the history of the Canyon National Farm Loan Association. Members of the association and their friends are urged to be present.

This meeting will be followed by a free luncheon to be given in the basement of the Methodist Church at 12 o'clock. It is the hope of the officers of the association that all members who conveniently can will attend enther the meeting or the luncheon, preferably that they shall attend both functions.

Small Return Made By Auto Owners of Information Cards

According to the latest available report from the Highway Planning Survey, 168 car owners of Randall county have mailed the post cards which were handed to them at the time they paid their 1937 automobile license fees at the office of R. N. Barnett, Tax Assessor and Collector. Since the number of cards thus far returned from this county are insufficient to give complete proof of the real needs of the county, every car owner should request one of these self-addressed, postage-free cards and should fill it in and mail it at once because information so collected, together with information compiled by other branches of the survey, will be used by the State Highway Department and the U. S. Bureau of Public Roads in allocating federal funds which will soon be spent in improving the secondary road system and in planning the future construction and maintenance of the roads and highways.

Throughout the state the car owners have been returning these cards in a highly satisfactory way. This county, in order to furnish information which places it on a comparable basis with other counties, should return these post cards from as high a percentage of its car owners as its neighboring counties.

WHERE GIANT AIR LINER PLUNGED 13 TO DEATH

Total deaths in the nation's major commercial air disasters in the last three months rose to more than 50 when this giant Transcontinental and Western Air liner crashed near Pittsburgh, taking 13 lives. The wreckage, shown above a few minutes after the plane plunged to earth, immediately became the scene of federal investigation in an effort to determine the cause of the disaster. The ship, only five miles from Pittsburg's Allegheny airport when it cracked up, ripped its cabin to splinters and apparently brought instantaneous death to all of its occupants. TWA officials said they believed the crash was due to ice forming on the plane's aileron a few minutes before it was to land. This would have made control of the ship impossible.

SIDELIGHTS

By MARVIN JONES
Member of Congress from Texas

In view of the recurring dust storms in the Southwestern Great Plains area, several of us have been endeavoring to secure an emergency fund so that immediate work can be started to counteract the damage that would otherwise be caused.

We have been trying to induce the Director of the Budget to approve the use of some unobligated funds of the AAA for this purpose. I hope that before this is published, his approval will be obtained. Practical assurance has already been given us that if the Budget Bureau approves, the Appropriations Committee will make these funds available.

Early use of such funds would make a program of listing and other practices to assist in preventing further destructive effects of the wind.

"Preventing Soil Blowing on the Southern Great Plains," is the title of a new bulletin just issued by the Department of Agriculture. This publication should prove helpful to the farmers in our section.

It takes up many practical problems which are confronted in attempts to conserve the soil. Included in it are discussions of the following subjects: cultivation for row crops; strip cropping; windbreaks; and regrassing.

I have asked that a supply of these bulletins be sent to the county agents. If the county agent is unable to supply one, I shall be glad to have a copy sent direct from Washington to anyone who is interested. I can be addressed at the House Office Building, Washington, D. C. The bulletin to ask for is No. 1771.

The Senate Agriculture Committee last week gave its approval to a crop insurance measure for wheat.

Under the provisions of the bill, farmers would pay premiums in wheat or cash, and in years of crop loss, indemnities would be paid back to the farmer in wheat, to take care of the percentage of the crop which is guaranteed. The program would be entirely voluntary on the part of the farmer.

It is felt that crop insurance should be tried in one commodity first to see how the plan would work. Wheat was chosen because there is more statistical information on wheat available at the present time than for other major crops.

After passage by the Senate, the bill will come to the House of Representatives for further consideration.

Noble Ranch Near Clarendon Yields Fossil Specimens

The M. M. Noble ranch near Goldston, a few miles from Clarendon, is yielding valuable fossil specimens according to Prof. C. Stuart Johnston, paleontologist of West Texas State. A truck load of fossils has already been brought from this location to the Museum here where they will be prepared for exhibit.

Excavation in this field is being done by WPA workers and is providing employment for ten Clarendon men.

Mr. Noble is among the ranchers of West Texas who make no charges for excavations made under the direction of the College.

Emergency Bill Awaits Signature of Gov. Allred

The emergency appropriation requested for W. T. by Dr. J. A. Hill has been passed by the Senate, the House, and the free conference committee.

The appropriation measure was cut down to $33,866 and is now awaiting the signature of Governor James V. Allred.

All WPA work on the campus was shut down several weeks ago until passage of the bill furnishes sufficient funds to continue the work.

Dr. Hill left for Austin to appear before the House and Senate in hearings on the regular budget appropriation for the next two years. Hearings will start about the middle of the week.

Smart to Bow in Spring

The lift of spring is in these hats, latest creations of the nation's chief fashion designers. Upper left, a black off-the-face straw with peaked crepe crown and black silk pompon. Top center, is a man-tailored Homberg in felt, while at the right is a felt beret, in the new coronation blue with ribbon lacing through the hat and a clever pin with a coat-of-arms. Lower center, another blue felt, but with a shallow squared crown. And below, a model wears a black straw and crepe turban with a narrow rolled straw brim and straw bow. She is holding a black straw turban with spaghetti trim.

THE APRIL'S TALE

Eagle's Tale

VOL. NO. 11. CANYON, TEXAS, APRIL 1, 1937. NUMBER 28

FUTILE FUTURE

1987, of "Fifty Years From Now."

FLASH. Eston Brietling and wife, the former Marie O'Donald, were seriously injured in an accident last Friday night on their way to visit their oldest son, Mr. Eston R. Brietling of Chicago, Ill. They were forced down at Springfield, Ill., when their autogyro hit a tree and broke a wing. Marylyn and Jim D., the younger Brietling children suffered only slight injrries.

Mr. and Mrs. Forest Hill celebrated their wedding anniversary last Friday with all of their five grown children present. Mrs. Hill is the former Billy Greenfield, a graduate of Canyon High School.

Miss Jewell Foster, former teacher of Spanish and history at Canyon High, is now head of the Spanish Department in Washington, D. C. Mr. Emil Hutto is coach of Stanford University's crack football team. Mr. Irby Carruth and Mr. John B. Pope are now retired and both are living at Cleveland, Ohio.

Carolyn Mayfield is a successful aviatrix and has set meny new records for solo flying.

Sue Terry is now living in New York City, where her husband is a broker.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Drummond are now residing at Palm Springs, Florida, where Mr. Drummond is the chief justice of the Supreme Court of Florida. Mrs. Drummond is the former Mary Catherine Wirt.

Edrie (Sweetie) McNeill is a professional model in New York City. She is now modeling for Coca Cola and says she likes the work a lot.

There are quite a few boys from our school that are in Washington now at the G-Man headquarters. D. A. Butler has attained the job of chief investigator, and Joe Gill and Jimmy Fite are two coppers. Jimmy has charge of traffic in Washington Square, while Joe gets the job of ushering tiny tots across the street at the Washington Grade School.

Mary Collins is now editor of The New York Sun, and as far as I know she enjoys it very much.

ALL ABOARD!

The annual intramural jacks tournament came to a spectacular climax yesterday afternoon when Jack Middleton, after a close race, defeated "Bot" Rusk, before ten thousand spectators in Canyon Municipal Gym. The finals of the boys' tournament were played with Jack finishing his silences to win, while the flashy Rusk was on his double down downs.

Tuesday the semi finals were played, when Rusk defeated Forest Hill by a bare majority, and Jack Middleton put Billy Sternenberg out of the running when Billy hollered in his silence, which was declared fouling.

Jack Middleton will train until next week when he will play "Ball Bouncer" Hutto, the faculty champion, who is supposed to be the best in the running. This is going to be a close race; be sure not to miss it. Admission ten cents to all. Funds will benefit Miss Clark's geometry class.

YOU' RETELLING US!

I am a fool. An April Fool, to be exact. I can't help it if I am a fool. I don't want to help it. I couldn't be anything but a fool if I tried. I was born a fool.

I am the only fool in school. Everyone else either has some sense or pretends to have. I always do the wrong thing, I say "no" when I should say "yes," or more likely, "yes" when "no" would be the proper thing to say. I get along with no one. I have no friends. I am the laughing stock of the school. But I don't mind. I am a fool.

Being a fool is sublime. Nothing hurts my feelings because I have no feelings. Everyone talks about me, and says complimentary things, too. But who am I to worry about what other people think? I am a fool.

I am a fool. I shall never be anything else. Why should I be? No one expects anything of a fool; so I am certain no one will be disappointed in me.

Somehow I have a penchant for saying the wrong thing at the wrong time. Either that or I say nothing, which only seems to irritate people more than any of the foolish things I usually say. No one believes me when I have a serious thought, because it is so seldom I have one.

Being a fool has its advantages, however. I can always enjoy myself. I am always happy. I am the goat. People work off their excess emotions on me. I have no feelings, no thoughts, no responsibilities. I am a fool. An April Fool, to be exact.

Seniors Too Smart For Teachers

The senior class will leave for an extended educational tour April 5. Sponsors on the trip will be Mr. Emil Hutto, Mr. I. B. Carruth, and Mr. John B. Pope. While on the tour, the class will visit various colleges and dance halls.

Since a heated debate has been held between various officials as to whether the train or bus will be used as transportation, they have decided that the school bus will be used and the school will pay for fuel.

The seniors have learned all that the teachers know to teach them, and this trip is to continue for four weeks, so that the seniors will not be running wild in the halls while the other students are studying.

Since Mr. Hutto, Mr. Carruth, and Mr. Pope are going to sponsor the group, Mr. Gerald Brown will act as superintendent in Mr. Carruth's place. Mr. Milton Morris will substitute in Mr. Pope's place, and Mr. R. G. Stephenson will be head coach in Mr. Huto's place.

The sponsor states that the class will try to return home in time to graduate; however, it might be a good idea for the senior program to be extended for a few days.

GUESS WHO?

A platinum blond, short and fat,
He's a sissy, and dumb, and his feet are flat;

DOPEY DAZE

The second grade was entertained at the home of little Fat Childers last Tuesday evening, celebrating his eighth birthday. Refreshments of all-day suckers and ice cream were served to the following: Mary Collins, Marielle Oldham, John Albers, Dayton Morris, Mattie Jordan, Roland Glass Stephenson, and the host, Fat Childers.

Over in the kindergarten, the children under the supervision of Mr. Vaughn Vandergriff have just finished their project on home nursing. Melvin Calliham and C. L. Drummond have won first place in the contest on best methods of reforming the criminals which we have in America today.

Jack Middleton, Ray Ford Rusk, and R. E. Prichard, children in the third grade, spent last week end visiting in Tulia.

The first grade recently visited a project at the college on the new models of bathing suits sponsored by Tommie Butler.

Hardine Rogge, Wilda Marsh, and Wannie Thomas, fifth graders, are designing some new football suits for boys in their class.

Annie Ruth Eastus, Gladys McClanahan, Ruth Greenfield, Elva Fronabarger, and Isabelle Cousins have just been selected from the elementary grades to participate in the county meet.

Lillian Tate, Mildred Tucker, Billy Greenfield, and Rayburn McKee will enter the declamation contests to be held next Monday for the children aged five and six.

Lucille Crowley, fourth grader, entertained a group of her friends with an Easter egg hunt last Sunday. The group hunted eggs in the Palo Duro Canyons, and they spent part of their time in the Lighthouse Canyons, as they did not have quite enough room to hide all the eggs in the Palo Duro Canyons. The eggs were colored gold, silver, and rust.

New games of pool and bridge have been installed in the lower grades.

New students in the fourth grade are Naomi Reynolds and Laurel Beth Jones.

Joe Patterson is the new art teacher in the grade school. He comes to us from Columbia University.

DEPARTMENT PROGRAM AGRICULTURE

The vocational agriculture department was installed in Canyon High School in September, 1914, but has never had any success or made any improvements until this year, when Mr. Milton Morris took the department over.

Melvin Calliham was the first to do anything for the club. He wrote an essay on "The Model Husband," which was a winning story, and as a prize he received a trip around the world with all expenses paid for himself and a companion. Mr. Calliham has not let it be known whom he will take on his trip. If any one knows who she is, the April Fool's staff would like to have an exclusive story on his trip.

The next, or we might say the most, important thing that the F. F. A. has done this year is with their chickens. They bought 504½ chickens and raised them in the art room at school. These chickens were the best in Randall County and won several prizes. The F. F. A. boys sold these chickens, and with the money received from them they bought a farm twelve miles from town. The house is brick, and has fifteen rooms and a basement. They have hot water, electric lights, and an electric dish washer. They have bought furniture for the house, and trees, flowers, grass, and so forth for the yard. They have not quite completed their lily pool yet. Several large barns have been built for their livestock and to cover their machinery. They bought 800 head of Hereford Whitefaces, 211 Jerseys, 8,000 baby chicks, 400 hogs, 26 horses, 30 guinea pigs, 2 pigeons, 4 dogs and 200 sheep. The machinery consists of several large Farmall tractors, etc.

A Chevrolet pick-up has been purchased for farm use. With the money left, they bought a bus to carry them back and forth to school. They plan to put these seventy sections of land into various crops. The food raised will be canned by the home economics department, who is planning to keep house for the boys.

In order to keep track of their profit, J. C. Bellah and Pauline Moore wil lkeep books for the club.

The boys still lack a few small things, such as a match holder, a dish pan, alarm clock, and some dish rags. If there is anyone who could donate these to the club, they wish you would do so, as they are badly in need of these things.

NOTICE!

Everything in this edition of the Eagle's Tale should be considered lightly. Any reference to any person, place or thing is not meant for slander or revenge, as we do not give any of these articles as the truth. These writings were meant for April Fools only, and we are asking that they be completely dismissed from your mind hereafter.

We, the Eagle's Tale staff, have taken this, April Fool's Day, to show you how the imagination functions when turned at random.

We realize that this material is not good journalism; neither is it following the standards of our school, but this being All Fool's Day, we will not be responsible for our writings; for today we are no longer scholars of journalism, nor students of Canyon High School, but plain April Fools.

Mary Collins, Editor.

GUESS WHAT?

Upon parting from C. H. S., the seniors of 1937 left as a token of their appreciation an electric elevator, a swimming pool, a broadcasting station, two concrete tennis courts, and a 25-cent pin cushion for the homemaking department.

The elevator will be operated by the Black boys, Sanford and Billy. They are experienced hand, so we expect prompt service. Maybe the office girls won't have to write so many tardy slips as result of this installment.

At the suggestion of Coach Hutto, a lover of water, the seniors contributed a 75x100 swimming pool. The water can automatically be heated or frozen; when the students are in a dancing mood, the water can be drained out and they have a glass floor to dance on. Miss Margaret Stewart, champion swimmer of C. H. S., is in charge of the swimming pool.

The seniors decided they wanted to show the world the talent of the students of C. H. S., so a broadcasting station, hooked up with NBC, CBS, MBC, and TQN, was promptly installed. A special studio was built for this as a result of Sam Robinson's master directing. Canyon is fast becoming famous as a result.

We are very proud of the tennis courts the seniors donated. The courts are surrounded by lovely green grass and ever-blooming flowers. One court has a canvas top over it, in order that the students can play while it is raining, and the other is glass, air-conditioned, just in case of a sandstorm. Miss Grace Clark and Miss Jewell Foster are in charge of these.

And last but not least, the thoughtful seniors left the fortunate homemaking department a huge 25-cent pincushion. This is especially appreciated by the girls taking home economics, so they can put their pins up and Miss Brasuel will not be fussing about the pins on the floor. Miss Brasual is to take care of the pincushion with the aid of the home economics girls.

May we once more express our thanks to the seniors for their gifts. We know that times aren't as good as they used to be, and due to other school activities the seniors didn't have time to raise as much money as they should have; but once again we thank them for what they did leave.

GRASS GROWS GREEN

The Stagecrafters of Canyon High School went to New York yesterday, where they started a series of productions of their great play of the year, "Why Grass Grows."

This series of productions is on Broadway, and it is to run for an entire year. In this way the club intends to raise enough money to buy an entire new stage, a new stage, a new lighting system so that people will look older or younger as they need to, and have doors in the scenery and more furniture for the stage.

Each player is being paid $1,000 a week besides what is taken in at the door, which goes to the Stagecrafters Club.

Reliable authorities in New York stated, "The Stagecrafters are the best amateur actors in the world. Probably within a month, their plays will take the place of the moving picture shows.

ME TOO!

Recently a new machine has been invented by the science department of Canyon High School, under the direction of Professor R. G. Stephenson. This invention is the first in history of the world to make people slender and healthier.

It is a remarkable thing; if you are naturally slender, the very same machine will make you nice and plump.

The machine is like a match box in size, and the biggest opening is the door. It is made of a scientific glass, and really does the work.

SLEEPING BEAUTIES SLUMBER

Many novel features entertained the boys who attended Odell Miller's slumber party Easter night.

The boys played football, basketball, and tiddley-winks until midnight, when they were served lemons and lemonade, lemon pie following.

Little John Albers beat "Man-Mountain" Dayton Morris, in a most exciting game of tiddley-winks. This was the main event of the evening. Football and basketball were too unexciting to interest the spectators.

All the lads slept on rock-beds with a blanket of stars to cover them. Both these items were new and original novelties, but they didn't compare with the next feature. Invisible servants were hired to come around at 3 o'clock to exchange the blanket of stars for a blanket of snow.

An unusual attraction was the realization that each boy had been supplied with a cold, a case of pneumonia, and stiff limbs before waking up.

Those attending were C. L. Drummond, guest of honor, Forest Hill, Jack Middleton, John Albers, Dayton Morris, Woodrow Hicks, Jack Inman, J. C. Bellah, Billy Sternenberg, Melvin Calliham, R. E. Prichard, Lavert Avent, D. A. Butler, Joe Gill, "Bot" Rusk, "Dodo" Brasuel, Jimmie Carr, Eston Brietling, and Carolyn Mayfield.

Everyone agreed that this was the best slumber party in which he had ever indulged.

YOU'D BE SURPRISED

The marriage of Miss Fannie Sue Brasuel to Mr. Gerald Alton Brown was one of the most beautiful and impressive weddings of the year. The rites were solemnized amid a profusion of flowers and candlelight in the First Methodist Church at 8 o'clock this morning with Brother I. B. Carruth officiating.

The bride wore a white satin wedding gown in princess style. A five-yard white hand-made imported train fastened over the head with wreaths of orange blossom wreaths. White rose-bud petals were strewn along before the bride from dainty white baskets. The flower girls were Idell Salmon, Myrtle Farr, and Ruth Gill. The ring bearer, Laverett Avent, had on a white satin suit with short trousers. The train bearers were Betty Ruth Solomon, Douglas Loudder, Mary Horn, John Albers, Hazel Sanders, Joe Gill, Fern Walters, and Alvis Ford. The flower girls wore dresses like those of the bridesmaids, except of pastel shades. Their hair was dressed in halo-style, outlined with orange blossoms. A bouquet of pastel shades. Small bouquets of flowers of correspondling colors were carried. All wore wreaths of orange blossoms in their hair.

The flower girls had on short, frilly white taffeta frocks and carried baskets of flowers. They wore gowns of pastel shades. Small bouquets of flowers of corresponding colors were carried. All wore wreaths of orange blossoms in their hair.

The groom and best men all wore black tuxedos. The best men were Mr. John B. Pope, Mr. R. G. Stephenson, Mr. Emil Hutto, Mr. Milton Morris, Mr. Gordon Beck, and Mr. H. G. Moore.

The boys dressed as the ring bearer.

The flower girls, except of pastel shades. The girls wore dresses like those of the flower girls. The bride entered a church beautifully decorated with candles burning brightly nestled among the flowers. The bride and groom stood under an improvised archway covered with imitation vines and flowers. Two hundred guests were present to witness the beautiful ceremony.

After the wedding, the happy couple took a drive, including the cities of Amarillo, Umbarger, and Happy. The rest of the day was spent in the beautiful Palo Duro Canyons.

Man-O-Man!

Have you heard the latest? The Canyon High School Eagles are a promising prospect for the Pasadena Rose Bowl next fall. Coach Hutto received a cordial invitation to the Fish Bowl, or rather the Rose Bowl, by Southern California's Coach Bull Looney. With our promising prospects of one hundred and twenty-two gridsters, we should make the opposing Redskins bite the dust. By the by, there is something I left out. Our first-string eleven averages 219 pounds in weight. The boys are really tough. We feed them on corn bread and spinach with a little cactus to tickle them into good humor.

Our track boys have got so fast that the chief of police gave them a ticket the other day when he caught them out on the highway racing. They were breaking the 45-miles per hour speed limit. They must have a three-in-one ratio gear or something of that sort.

A new game for all hefty high school girls is underway; it is wrestling. This is a new sport, and we don't know how it will work out. You know, we could use the extra hair that was pulled for making pillows for the lounge room.

There has been talk of a bicycle tournament for Play Day, which will include an endurance test, races, and fancy riding. Mr. R. G. Stephenson was seen Saturday practicing for the latter, and from the stunts he pulled then, he ought to stand an excellent chance for carrying off the trophy.

Great Guns! What Next?

In the year of 1937, a new home economics building was constructed north of the building to replace the three rooms occupied by the home economics class in Canyon High School.

The new building has six rooms, a living room with modern-designed furnishings, a kitchen with white equipment, a sewing room with twenty electric machines, a child's nursery where small children may be cared for by the home economics girls, and a class room where the students may have regular classes.

The living room color scheme is peach and blue. The seventh-grade girls have charge of this room. Double windows with flower boxes add light and gaiety to the room.

The dining room has the advantage of double windows facing the east and south. Much light reflects on the dining room furniture.

The kitchen has eight electric stoves, and every cabinet is of the new white enamel. Cleanliness prevails in this modernistic equipped kitchen.

The child's play room is full of toys for the children. They are six sun lamps and a built-in wading pool for the children to play in. A sand box with spades and sand buckets is also included.

Miss Fannie Sue Brasuel, the home economics teacher of Canyon High School, has recently received her doctor's degree in home economics from New York University.

Home economics is the course which attracts the attention of the girls of the high school. The course is very well liked, because of the improvements and advantages over years ago.

Steve Is America's Heart Throb Now

Mr. R. G. Stephenson, band director of the Canyon Public School band, has received a contract to take Phil Harris' place on the Jack Benny program over the radio. He will leave the high school this afternoon to fly in his private airplane to California. If you will tune in on Jack Benny's program tonight, you will be able to hear the voice of our beloved band director.

The plane was piloted by Sherman Higdon. Stephenson took with him his butler, Woodrow Hicks; his maid, Wannie Thomas, and his traveling companion, Joe Stevens. He is taking with him twelve Pekingnese dogs; Marille Oldham will go along to take care of them.

He will start next week on his first picture. It will be "Once Too Often." He will be co-starred with Greto Garbo. Liberty gives him four stars. He has a lifetime contract with the Fox Studio.

Ronald Glass Stephenson is taking the place of Robert Taylor in the hearts of the fairer sex of America.

Help Keep Canyon Clean!

THOUGHT OF THE WEEK

There's no fool like an old fool, except a young fool; April Fool.

Come One, Come All; See!

Mr. Milton Sanders entertained the high school faculty with an Easter egg hunt last Sunday. The group hunted eggs in the backyard until all eggs were found. The eagle eye of Miss Grace Clark found the most eggs, and she was awarded a prize of a candy bunny.

After the hunt, the group was served hot chocolate and ice cream.

As the evening drew to a close, the various members took their basket of eggs and left for various places, namely the Nat and Roseland.

GOING UP!

Skiing, ice skating, tobogganing, sleigh riding, hockey, and snowballing have taken the place of football, basketball and track in dear old alma mater.

Many athletes plan to enter the District Olympics in these many fields, with each sport holding a separate spot light.

The snow-balling team will be composed of "Bot" Rusk, Fairy Hill, Joe Gill, D. A. Butler, "Dodo" Brasuel, Glen Persons, Jimmy Pope, Jimmy Carr, Joe Grady Crowley, Doyle Neff, and Mabry Vandergriff. These boys are expected to take the snow-balling championship.

Then there is Odell Miller, C. L. Drummond, Herschel Burrrus, J. D. Breitling, Jack Middleton, and "Bot" Rusk to enter the ice-skating field. There are many divisions of races. Authorities expect C. L. Drummond and Jack Middleton to represent Canyon High in the quarter mile, and there will be a mile-relay team of these two, "Bot" Rusk and Odell Miller, which ought to go places. Herschel and J. D. will enter the half-mile race. Both of these boys are a wow. Melvin Calliham can build up speed in a mile that might do some good.

This year's hockey team is, by all present indications, a winner. There will be "Bot" Rusk, Melvin Calliham, Eston Breitling, C. L. Drummond, and D. A. Butler to take the pennant in fine style. They will be aided at times by substitutes Jimmy Pope and Mabry Vandergriff.

The toboggan team will be Dayton Morris, Vaughn Vandergriff, Willard Childers, and "Bot" Rusk. These boys are all light, allowing plenty of speed for the toboggan.

Mary Collins is the only try-out for skiing, but she is so good she already has her part of the Olympics cinched. She works out on the ski-jump north of the high school building. (2,500 miles north.)

Kate Donnell is the sleigh-ride entry because she's the only one who has a horse that can run hard and fast with a sled behind him.

This sums up the athletic parade for 1937; and judging from all indications in the present outlook, the Eagles will certainly let the world know they're here. Coaches for all these events are Emil Hutto, Buff Morris, and Gerald Brown.

Lord Harry Hopscotch, chief professor of hysterics at the Offside, England, insane asylum, addressed the C. H. S. student body last Wednesday afternoon on "Why Water Won't Run Uphill."

Lord Hopscotch has been chief professor of hysterics at O. I. A. for the last twenty years. It is his proud claim that he is the nuttiest nut of all nuts in O. I. A.

I heartily agree with Lord Harry. He is also a good orator, if had a voice loud enough to be heard four feet from him. His elogution is perfect, almost.

We certainly appreciate such a distinguished visitor coming to C. H. S., and hope that the next time he pretends to be a bird and flies out the window, he lands on his head.

De Luxe Raided

Students of Canyon High School are taking a holiday today due to the fact that no teachers were at school; but school will probably be continued tomorrow, as the jail is hardly large enough to accommodate the number longer.

The DeLuxe Dine and Dance Palace was raided by local police and a number of citizens were in the room at the back in a big "crap game," seemingly forgetting that we still have prohibition. They were arrested and sent to jail.

Among those arrested were Gerald Brown, H. Grady Moore, Pauline Crittenden, John B. Pope, Sr., R. G. Stephenson, Fannie Sue Brasuel, Mattie Jordan, Gordon Beck, Jewell Foster, Grace Clark, Vivian Stephens, Milton Sanders, Milton Morris, Irby Carruth, Annie Ruth Eastus, Gwendolyn Black, and Emil Hutto.

Dr. Anderson Is Staff Member of History Magazine

Dr. Hattie M. Anderson of the history department has accepted an invitation to become a member of the editorial board of "Social Studies," a monthly magazine for history instructors published in Philadelphia by the McKinley Publishing Co.

Dr. Author C. Bining, editor of the publication and head of the history department of Pennsylvania University, said in a letter to Dr. Anderson that as a member of the editorial board she would be asked to contribute and secure articles and to write book reviews.

Dr. Anderson is the author of "A direct Study Guide in Texas History for Grade Six." She recently had three articles published in the "Missouri Historical Review." She has also contributed articles to the "Mississippi Valley Historical Review," and to the "Panhandle-Plains Historical Review."

Ups and Downs in Business Since 1905

The story of skirts for the business girl, from 1905 to 1937, is revealed in this picture, taken at the National Business Show held in Chicago. At the left is the ideal secretarial habit of the early 1900's and, at the right, is the 1937 model. Skirts have dropped a good bit since 1927, represented by the girl second from the right, but it appears they're on the way up once more.

Twenty Elected To Honor Society In W. T. High

The R. P. Jarrett and Angie Debo Chapter of the National Honor Society in W. T. High School elected 20 members Thursday as mid-term grades were turned in and averaged by Miss Jennie C. Ritchie.

New members of the R. P. Jarrett Society, for seniors, ranked as follows: Brynilde Vaughn, Billy Norman, Anita Cleland, Glen Davis, Lela Loudder, Nell Stevenson, Lyman York McGehee, and Ruth Campbell.

Those admitted to the Angie Debo or junior society were freshmen, Patti Quattlebaum, Leon Smith, Betty Ross Donald, and Dorthea Harter; sophomores, Mary Kathrine Sharp, Mildred Merchant, Bessie Lane, and Ida Martha Pierle; and juniors, Brunele Archer, Beatrice McCustern, Anna Dell Sligar, and Mary Gidden.

Butler Is Elected Captain of Buff Basketball Squad

Conway Butler, two-year letterman from Turkey, was unanimously elected as next year's captain of the Buffaloes in a vote by the varsity squad in Denver, last week.

Butler's cool and mechanical play all season won for him much admiration and distinction both from his team mates and Buffalo supporters. It was his principal scoring weapon—a freak over-head push-shot that kept the opponents in constant danger. In the National A. A. U. tournament, the Buff assault was led by the precise Butler, who rumbled through for 31 markers in the two matches.

Butler graduated from Turkey High School in 1933 where he was outstanding in all high school athletics. After attending Texas Tech for a year, he transferred to West Texas in the spring of 1935. Since coming here, Butler has lettered at football and basketball.

Here Is a New Three and Four-Row Tool Bar Lister for the Powerful McCormick-Deering Farmall 30

The new McCormick-Deering No. 11 Tool Bar Lister is a valuable implement for its own work as a lister, but that job is only the beginning of its field usefulness. It is the basic unit in a new line of Farmall tool bar implements designed especially to meet the requirements of this section.

The "No. 11" carries a heavy square steel tool bar on which lister or buster bottoms, sweeps, and planting units may be arranged for working in standard row widths. With this new equipment, you can quickly rig the Farmall 30 for middlebusting, running middles, planting on beds, skip-row planting, listing, loose-ground listing, basin listing, or relisting. It is a simple matter to make equipment changes to meet seasonal requirements.

"No. 11" can be used with any Farmall 30 which is equipped with power lift. McCormick-Deering tool bar implements are also available for use with the Farmall 12 and the Farmall 20. Ask us for details.

Glacier Immigrates Without Passport

Somewhat of an international immigration problem is Grand Pacific glacier which geologists now discover has crossed the border from Alaska into Canada without benefit of passport. In fact, the glacier has been pretty sneaking about the whole affair, having retreated some 12 miles in 43 years. At the time of the Canada-Alaska border settlement in 1894, Grand Pacific glacier stretched across the boundary line into Alaska. Now its face is 12 miles on the Canadian side, as indicated above.

the Swing-Out Broiler is a feature of the latest MAGIC CHEF gas range

Everyone knows that broiled food is better in taste and in health qualities than fried food. But until the makers of the famous Magic Chef gas ranges developed the revolutionary Swing-Out Broiler, broiling has always been difficult and at times disagreeable. Now you can broil in comfort, for with this new Magic Chef feature the broiler and food all swing out away from the flame. You are protected from spattering grease. You can turn the meat or fish without danger of burning your hands. You don't have to stoop over and peer into the broiler to see when the food is done. The Swing-Out Broiler is only one of many features of the modern, automatic Magic Chef gas ranges that make cooking and baking easier, faster and more economical. Let us explain them all to you.

P.T.A. Holds Meeting Thursday; Officers are Elected

"Appreciation is an inner response to whatever is worthwhile wherever found," began Mrs. J. A. Hill in speaking to the Parent-Teachers Association on "Appreciation" last Thursday evening.

In substance, Mrs. Hill went on to say: "We speak of appreciation of nature, art, literature, music, even cooking; but we are chiefly interested in the other side of the question: that which has to do with appreciation among people. Everyone is hungry for appreciation; some are actually starving for it. Why should we be so loathe to express our feelings? Have you a friend? When did you tell her that you loved her? I close with my original definition of appreciation: 'an inner response to the worthwhile wherever found.' If we would be happy, and make others happy, give to the world an outward expression of that inner response."

In the business meeting, the following officers were elected for the coming year: president, Mrs. C. W. Warwick; secretary, Mrs. W. T. Davis; treasurer, Mrs. Dewey Foster; first vice-president, Mrs. J. B. Pope; second vice-president, Mrs. Ed Phillips; third vice-president, Mrs. Vote Winn; fourth vice-presidents, Mrs. Carl Scott and Miss Pauline Crittenden; fifth vice president, Mrs. Warren Johnson; chairman of Child Study Club, Mrs. Dan Sanders; music chairman, Mrs. Harry Brown.

Delegates to the district conference in Perryton today and tomorrow are Mesdames Dan Sanders, C. W. Warwick, Clarence Thompson, S. H. Condron, J. B. Pope, Warren Johnson, Alfred Bellah, Ray Campbell, R. E. Ball, Dewey Foster, T. W. Collins, Harry Brown, Bill Black, and Irby Carruth.

The Boys' Choral Club of West Texas High School, under the direction of Miss Ada V. Clark, gave several selections. Mrs. Harvey Cash had charge of the devotional.

One pupil of expression, Martha Hannah Hammond, will also be presented.

Build Hospital

talked in favor of a hospital for several years. At one time an election was held to vote bonds for a city-county institution, but this was rejected by the voters. At that time the argument was made that a privately owned hospital would be a success, whereas a public institution was usually a source of burden to the taxpayers.

Dr. Neblett has carefully studied the situation since coming to Canyon five years ago. He believes in the future of the town, and although convinced that no hospital in a small town is a great financial success, yet the facilities offered to the people is always appreciated and will be used owing to convenience to the people in staying in the smaller town, and usually at a considerable lower cost.

Work will be started on the building within a few weeks, as the architect has been instructed to complete the plans as soon as possible.

W. A. Warren, president of the Chamber of Commerce, has been assisting Dr. Neblett in every way possible.

Mr. Warren called his directors yesterday and a petition was drawn to circulate among the citizens of Canyon, asking the city commission to complete the paving on Sixth Avenue. Three blocks remain unpaved south of the square, and the hospital will be located in the middle of this unpaved section.

"Not many towns have received such fine institutions as this hospital will be without the citizens making donations to the enterprise," stated Mr. Warren. "From a civic standpoint, the least Canyon can do to assist in the enterprise is to see to it that this street be paved for the benefit of those who will use the hospital facilities," continued the head of the Chamber of Commerce.

Cake Walk and Faculty-Business Men Basketball

Don't miss the fun at Canyon High School tomorrow night! Just think, another Cakewalk is coming to town! The Senior Class is sponsoring a combination cakewalk and basketball game, beginning at 8 o'clock Friday night in the grade school gymnasium.

The cakewalk will begin the evening of entertainment. Fifty cakes and other prizes donated by the business men are to be given away. Each walk will cost five cents.

Following the walking the business men's basketball team will play the faculty team. The probable starting line-ups will be:

Faculty: Carruth, Stephenson, Brown, Hutto, Beck.

Business Men: L. Foster, D. Lowes, S. McDaniels, R. Cabe, F. Hicks.

President's Evening

President's Evening, Thursday, April 8, will be featured by addresses from Mrs. R. J. Turrentine, Denton, state president, and Mrs. J. W. Walker, Plainview, district president. Outstanding musical numbers will make this program noteworthy. The response to Canyon's addresses of welcome will be given on behalf of the district by Mrs. S. E. Fish, Amarillo, district federation chairman.

District Contests

When the session of awards is announced on Friday afternoon, clubs throughout the district will have in store for them a number of very worthwhile prizes and awards, as district chairmen in several departments are sponsoring this year many interesting contests, results of which will be given at this session, and prizes presented the winners.

A partial list of the contests follows: Music division, choral contest; senior clubs, "The Star," by Rogers-Baldwin, 3 part chorus; Junior clubs, "Giannina Mia" by Friml-Riegger, 3 part chorus. Mrs. H. L. C. Kinard, Memphis, chairman.

Junior department, Mrs. L. T. Mayhugh, Running Water, chairman, offers $2.50 to club organizing and federating most junior clubs; $2.50 to junior club giving best report at district meeting.

Mrs. John J. Smith, Plainview, assistant junior chairman, offers prize of $3.00 for the best presentation of a club report by a junior at the district convention, this presentation to be judged equally upon the following points of diction, contexture, personal appearance and manner of presentation.

Press and publicity department: Mrs. Meade F. Griffin, Plainview, offers a prize of $2.50 to the club presenting the best publicity scrapbook, the book to be judged on the basis of make-up and news value of contents.

Mrs. Jack Rector, Spur, year book chairman offers a cash prize for the best yearbook. Send entries to her now.

American Home Department: Mrs. Rex Tynes, Lubbock, chairman of division of "Safety in the Home" offers an appropriate prize for "The Best Plan to Awaken Homemakers to the Large Number of Accidents in the Home, and Ways to Prevent Them." Send entries to Mrs. Tynes by April 1.

International Relations department: Miss Aves Long, general federation chairman, offers an attractive prize for the best essay on the subject, "The United States and Japan—Neighbors or Enemies." For details, write Mrs. T. J. Dunbar, Memphis, district department chairman.

Department of Fine Arts, division of poetry, Mrs. Harry Willis, Borger, chairman, offers the following prizes: One prize of $5.00 for the best poem, not over 24 lines in any form or meter; one prize of $3.00 for the best regular Petrarchan sonnet. Variation from this regular pattern will disqualify contestants. Example, Milton's sonnet "On His Blindness"; one prize of $3.00 will be given for the best rondeau of Voiture. Example: John McCrae's "In Flanders Fields." No variations accepted.

Department of American Citizenship, Mrs. R. H. Kinsley, Friona, chairman, offers two prizes, one $2.00 and another $1.00, for the best essay of 250 or 300 words on "Laying the Cornerstone for Healthy Citizens of Tomorrow."

Study Outlines Available

Mrs. Jo W. Wayland, Plainview, chairman of the program planning committee, which is a new feature of district work which is proving most interesting to clubs, announces that approximately fifteen study outlines are now available. These outlines are on the general subjects of art, literature, music, international relations, philosophy, travel, miscellaneous, and one on Old Mexico. Requests for outlines are coming in daily now, and are being made out as rapidly as possible, the chairman stated.
